

Reignite your passion for life and work through David Whyte's stunning prose and poetry.

Enroll in Deep Currents and achieve a new understanding of your truest calling.

Deep Currents is an eight-session, multi-media, interactive learning experience based on Crossing the Unknown Sea, poet David Whyte's inspiring journey of self-discovery.

In the Deep Currents course, you will ...

- Read David Whyte's inspiring autobiographic book, Crossing the Unknown Sea
- Access stimulating journaling questions through the Deep Currents website
- Participate in facilitated group sharing with your course colleagues

Deep Currents will help you achieve ...

- A fresh new awareness about your truest calling in life
- Greater satisfaction and effectiveness at work
- A greater capacity for being of service to others

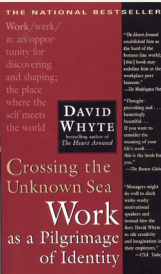

"Through Deep Currents, I discovered untapped inner gifts—including creativity, finding and expressing beauty and achieving heart connection."

— Annee Hayden Martin

Learn more and enroll today!

The Deep Currents course is conducted with small, intimate groups of eight to 12 people either locally, in person or at a distance, telephonically.

Go to ScienceOfMind.com/DeepCurrents for course fees and scheduling information.

Become a Deep Currents Facilitator

Sharing David Whyte's insight on life and work is a great way to help your clients reconnect with their truest calling. Become licensed to deliver the course. Enroll in the two-month Facilitator Training Program and participate from the comfort of your own home, then deliver the Deep Currents course from any location via teleconferencing.

For more information, go to DeepCurrents.org/visit
